

*Do you want to work with children and youth full- or part-time?

*Do you want to earn transferable college units while learning about youth development?

Then you should enroll in the Introduction to Youth Development course at Laney College this fall 2007 starting on August 22nd!

* Participants who enroll in the Intro to Youth Development course who are also interested in getting a job in an afterschool program are eligible to sign up for an additional job coaching program that complements the coursework and pays a stipend of up to $375 for the semester. Job coaching participants must commit to attend 12 hours of group job coaching as well as up to 3 individual hours of job coaching outside of class hours.

* Participants looking for a part-time job will receive job placement assistance within an Oakland afterschool program.

To apply for this opportunity to earn college units and receive a stipend for participating in the job coaching, complete the attached application. For more information, contact Rebecca Goldberg at rgoldberg@calsac.org or 415-957-9789.
